Fine weather was experienced on the entire trip. The sugar awaiting shipment on Hawaii plantations is 15,000 bags at Honolulu, 7500 bags at Kukuhaele and 500 bags at Honopou. The Manna Loa sails on next Friday at noon for usual ports.

Will Be Married Again
Honolulu, April 9.—The engagement is announced of Mrs. Emma Spreckels Watson, to John W. Farria, of San Francisco, a civil engineer, and her marriage to Watson estranged her from her parents, and after a long quarrel Mr. and Mrs. Watson took up their residence in England, where Mr. Watson died. After his death Mrs. Watson returned to her parents and to the mansion on Van Ness avenue, which it was reported Claus Spreckels had built for his daughter. She has resided in San Francisco ever since.

KEEP AN EYE ON "THE COLLEGE WIDOW"
Of course, after a signal victory of any sort, rejoicing is always in order. Did you ever hear of a great football victory that wasn't celebrated with a vengeance in a college town? You, of course, have heard and read about them, and by venturing your way over to the Hawaiian Opera House on the 26th or 28th of April you can see just such a celebration in progress.
It is in "The College Widow." The Myrtle Boat Club, for whom the performance is being given, are rehearsing some of their picked men to play the student body for the production, and with all of them and the regular cast, the celebration after the big game ought to be pretty realistic. The boys do their serpentine dance, the big football dinner is in progress, and bon-fires and jolly crowds of students testify to the happiness of the event.
This, of course, occurs after the college opening, the big faculty reception and the great football game, and all this time the play has been shaping itself toward the final act wherein all is brought to an appropriate finale.
All the characters met with in a college town, as well as those who are seen there at the opening of college play important parts, and they fit in as they ought to in the real.

AN OLD IDEA.
People used to think that baldness was one of those things which are handed down from generation to generation, from father to son—just like a family heirloom.
Science has shown the fallaciousness of this belief by providing that baldness itself is not a constitutional disease, but the result of a germ invasion of which only Herpelide can effectually rid the scalp.
Washing only cleans the scalp of Dandruff, it doesn't kill the germs. "Destroy the cause you remove the effect."
Newbro's Herpelide will do this in every case. It is also a delightful dressing.
Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpelide Co., Detroit, Mich. Hollister Drug Co., special agents.

Girls' School Man NEVER Uses Bad Language

A Portuguese lady and gentleman were presented in Police Court this forenoon to answer to the charge of saying things, over the fence, uncomplimentary of the character of a neighboring lady. Mossman, the promising young legal luminary of the lower halls of justice, championed the couple. County Prosecutor Andrade led the attack.
The complaining lady took the stand and talked for seven minutes without noticeable inconvenience. Her story was to the effect that her infant was missing at 6 p. m. of Saturday last. She found it in the defendant's yard and thereupon soundly spanked her other children for leaving the gate open that her youngest might wander into the adjoining premises. She said Mary and Manuel, the neighbors, came out and called her names. Her sister supported her story, the sister's baby taking the stand with its mother and making faces at the Honorable Court.
The defendant's version was to the effect that complainant used all the language. Mrs. Defendant, weighing over 200 pounds, took the witness box and showed how complainant stamped her foot three times and used a bad word. The testifying matron shook the court room and jarred the dignity of the attendant officers when she pounded the floor. It was to laugh.
Mr. Defendant had a letter from the chief lady of the Kamehameha School for Girls, testifying to his excellent character.
Judge Whitney thought there had been as much eloquence on one side of the fence as on the other and discharged defendants.
All this happened on the Kalihai road. One Kama appeared in Police Court against his brother, for assault, but asked the Judge merely to reprimand his relative.

FEDERAL GRAND JURY DOING RAPID WORK
The Federal Grand Jury is as usual working with little noise and almost incredible rapidity. As a matter of fact, it will probably be through with its work tomorrow, in which case it will have sat for only two and one-half days. This forenoon the postoffice embezzlement case of Postmaster Wells of Kawaihae, who claims that the funds he is short were consumed in a fire which demolished the postoffice, was taken up. W. L. Vredenburg of Waimana, George Blake of Pukolo, Chuck Hoo of Kawaihae and Wm. Lanz of Honolulu were examined as witnesses in this matter. As soon as this case had been disposed of, the Grand Jury took up a case of illicit distilling from Kohala. It has still to look into several Chinese and Hawaiian bigamy matters.
This morning one of the defaulting Grand Jurors, Charles W. Bridges of Maui, who had not been able to come yesterday, joined the rest of the investigators.

VOLCANO LINER TAKES BIG CROWD
There was a jolly crowd on the Kinan and it filled every berth and stateroom on board when the popular Volcano liner sailed at noon today for Kahuha. Among those to see the wonders of Kilauea were the J. S. Harlan and Mrs. Waddell of Atlantic, Iowa; F. H. Crombles of Spokane Falls; the E. A. Brucks of San Francisco and the L. L. Grays of Fresno, Cal., who were booked at Trent's agency for the round trip. James Lyle, the veteran ship builder, takes a trip to Hilo and Kilauea for his health. Other tourist passengers were S. P. Bartley of San Francisco and Miss L. Lawlor of Halifax. The Kinan is due to return next Saturday morning.

HOTSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS
There are hundreds of men and women who have not eaten a hearty meal for years. Their stomachs have "gone back" on them. In such cases the Bitters will be found very helpful. It strengthens the stomach and cures Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Poor Appetite, Heartburn, Bloating Cramps or Kidney Ills.

Eagles Celebrate Joyous Picnic
The seventh anniversary of the establishment of the Fraternal Order of Eagles in this city was celebrated at the Peninsula, Pearl City, last evening by a great picnic, about 400 making the trip from the city at 7:30 p. m. on the special train.
Kaal's quintet club furnished the music and dancing was enjoyed to the full. The refreshments were all that could be wished for.
The committees to whom credit is due for the success of last night's celebration were as follows:
Refreshment Committee—T. A. Simpson (chairman), Robt. Ross, Harry Klemme, H. F. Singer, Axel Langgrou, E. L. Berndt, Dave Hurst, J. A. Rothwell, Jas. McAniff, Harry Jensen, Paul Mauldenhaner, Chas. Freeman.

For Kauai ports, per str. W. G. Hall, sailing April 10.—F. E. Harvey, A. F. Knudsen and wife, W. H. Hilborn, Mrs. F. Carter, George Rosa, Mrs. C. M. Cooke, J. H. Wilson, T. King.
Two matrons met by chance at a reception. As they ate strawberries and drank champagne they talked of their daughters, both this season's debutantes. "Dear Helen is going everywhere," said the first matron, twitching her shoulders to keep up her ermine stole. "She is invited simply everywhere. She keeps me on the go." She sipped her icy wine and added: "Your daughter doesn't go out at all, does she?" "Oh, no," said the second matron. "You see, she became engaged at Christmas, and doesn't have to."—New York Press.
